1. This is an application made for erasing certain observations made by me in my order dated 17.2.2006. I have no powers to entertain such an application as it would amount to review. Applicant in person states that this is an application under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. Section 482 of Cr.P.C. cannot be invoked to introduce power of review where none exist under Cr.P.C. The proper procedure is to approach the Apex Court. Subject to this, Criminal application is rejected. The applicant appearing in person states that he would like to file an application in the Hon'ble Supreme Court and in the interest of justice and to avoid multiplicity of proceedings, the trial in the Sessions Court may not proceed for a period of 4 weeks from today. In the circumstances, in the interest of justice, it is directed that the trial in Sessions Case No.60 of 2001 pending on the file of the Additional Sessions Judge, Sangli, may not proceed for a period of 4 weeks. It is made clear that no extension will be granted for any reason whatsoever after this period. Authenticated copy of this order be provided to the parties.
